MORE PROOFS

OF THE EFFICACY OF

Dr. Church's Cough Drops.

A Medicine unequalled by any other in the world, since first discovered by Doctor Church; it has restored to health many thousands of the most emaciated objects, both Asthmatic and Consumptive that were ever known to exist both in Europe, America and the West Indies, and often when every other medicine had been used without effect, and the most eminent of the faculty consulted in vain. It is a sovereign, speedy and effectual remedy in

Head Aches	Sore Throats
Catarrhs	Wheezings
Shortness of breath	Congealed Phlegm
Ticklings in the throat	Spitting of blood
Tightness in the chest	Soreness of the breast &
Hooping Cough	Stomach, &c. &c.

and all disorders of the breast and lungs. Further proof of its efficacy, with a list of upwards of one thousand attested cases of cure, may be seen at the place of sale.

AFFIDAVIT.

City of New-York, ss.

William M'Cloughan resident of Gibb's alley, in the city of New-York, cooper, voluntary maketh oath that he was severely afflicted with a consumption for upwards of 18 years, that he laboured under the most inexpressible affliction with a violent cough and shortness of breath, that he could not lie down in his bed for weeks together, but was obliged to be proped up by pillows or in an armed chair, and in the day time unable to attend his business; that at length he was so reduced and wasted away, as to be scarce able to walk at all: that he had tried the skill of many respectable medical men, and has expended a very considerable sum of money, and has taken a great deal of medicines without effect. That at last he despaired of ever getting cured, till he, through recommendation, took Dr. Church's cough drops, from which he found very present relief, and by persevering in the use of them, he is now perfectly restored to health, and has had no return or symptom of his disorder since

WILLIAM M'CLOUGHAN.

Sworn to before me this 29th day of May, 1799.

Jacob De La Montagnie, Alderman.

Copy of a Letter from capt. Henry.

Dear Sir,

In the year '95, I had the misfortune to break a blood vessel, which was succeeded by a severe complaint on my lungs, cough, shortness of breath and spitting up of matter and blood, with every other disagreeable symptom of a disorder of the lungs; indeed so afflicting was this disorder, that I could not rest at night, nor could walk 200 yards in the day, without stopping to cough and rest myself a number of times. This disorder continued to increase upon me, till I was much wasted in body, and exceedingly weak. Seeing your advertisements in the public papers, early in the last summer, I commenced taking your justly celebrated Cough Drops, which I persevered in the use of, for sometime; I have now the happiness of informing you, my lungs are perfectly sound; I have no shortness of breath, or spitting up of matter or blood; my cough is a little troublesome in the morning, but no other time I am Sir,

Your's every respectfully,
WILLIAM HENRY.

TO DR. CHURCH.

Sir,

For upwards of twelve years, I have laboured under a severe cough, shortness of breath, spitting of matter from my lungs, and often clotted blood, till at length I was so reduced as to be unable to walk across my room, and owing to the violence of my cough and shortness of breath could get no rest day or night. Hearing of your excellent medicine, the Cough Drops, I procured a bottle; I took a dose as soon as I got it, from which I found instantaneous relief, and by continuing it for three days, I bless God I am restored to perfect health. As I believe, you have been the instrument in the hands of Providence, by saving my life, I must entreat you to publish this for the benefit of any who may be in my situation, as I am confident it is one of the best medicines in the world for those complaints.

I am Sir, your grateful servant,

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,
THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 20.

No paper will be issued from this office, on Saturday;—on account of the Public Ceremonies in honor of Gen. Washington.

Through the kindness of an obliging friend in Europe, we have received by the Comet, at Baltimore, and an arrival at Charleston, from St. Sebastian's, files of Paris Journals for the month of November. The following articles are translated from them.

PARIS, November 28.

The Barbets continue their ravages in the department of the maritime Alps; they are protected by the Royalists, and massacre the republicans.

In the sitting of the "Legislative Commission of the Council of Ancients," on the 24th November, the central administrations of Yonne and Charente, the judges of the civil tribunal of Siene and Oise, the citizens of the commune of Laon, felicitated the commission on the triumph of Buonaparte.

The commission approved the resolution of yesterday, which opens to the minister of the interior a credit of eight millions.

It is a mistake that General Champoinet is already on his return to Paris. We had yesterday news from him still dated in Italy. It is not indeed as favorable as we might have expected from the conqueror of the kingdom of Naples; and it appears that in quitting the army of Italy, he will have some reverses to be repaired.

By order of the Consuls, all theatrical pieces relative to the affair of St. Cloud, (the triumph of Buonaparte) have been forbidden.

There runs a report, that the Archduke has set out suddenly for Vienna. It is added, that in passing by Augsbourg, he did not see Suwarow.

Every one builds a constitution after his own fashion, every one gives us his dreams for realities: some preserve the three consuls, others establish a President and Vice-President; now they divide France into twenty-five confederate states, and now into fifty departments; this scheme re-establishes the intendants and the sub-delegates, that one suppresses the central and municipal administrations; such an one announces a Grand Elector who shall have no other function than to appoint to all offices without the right of destitution: he is to hold what they call the folio of benefices. Such another converts the Legislative Body into two chambers; the one composed of two hundred representatives shall discuss the laws, of which the Executive Power shall have the origination; the other, composed of one hundred Senators, shall approve or reject these laws without discussion, only by yes or no. They speak also of a constitutional jury which shall pronounce in a supreme manner upon all disputes relating to the Constitution; they still speak of counsellors of state, of the introduction of ministers into the Legislative body, of the necessity of having a certain revenue to be eligible to either chamber, or even to be entitled to the privilege of voting; they speak of causing the constitution to be received by the people without presenting it to the Legislative Body; they speak after this of dissolving the present councils in order to establish councils conformable to the new constitution. We give this merely as the tenor of private conversations, for we are still ignorant of the basis of the social contract they are preparing for us: the legislative committees have decreed nothing as yet in regard to that object; it is probable in the mean time that we shall know ere fifteen days to what to attach ourselves, and without doubt we shall have some details upon the principal dispositions of our political regeneration.

An ignorant and incompetent man having assumed upon himself to write a Life of General Washington, we are happy in having it in our power to state that a work of this nature is likely soon to be undertaken by a Gentleman of talents and learning adequate to so important and interesting a task; and who will also possess the advantage of a recourse to the official papers of the departed Hero.

We are authorized in making this statement, by a Letter from the Legatee of the papers of General Washington, wherein that Gentleman mentions several circumstances which will probably forbid him from attempting it; but trusts that the selection of a fit character may be in his power, which he shall endeavor to make immediately.

Mr. A. Dickens, an enterprizing young man, is about re-publishing Two Sermons preached by Doctor Ogden of Newark, on the Death of General Washington. These Sermons are particularly valuable, as they record many interesting circumstances in the life of that illustrious man, which, we believe, will be new to the mass of readers. As a Bookseller, studious of publishing good Books, Mr. Dickens merits countenance and applause.

☞ A stated meeting of the American Philosophical Society, will be held at their Hall, to-morrow evening, at 6 o'clock.

Married, on Saturday evening last, by the Rev. Dr. Linn, Captain JOHN E. SWORDS to Miss ANN CATHERINE DUNN, daughter of Mrs. Dunn, of this city.

THEATRE.

Last evening, was performed to a very fashionable audience, another new thing from the facious pen of the old Illuminatus. As the Play Bills told us that the production had been revised, and adapted to the American stage, we expected to have found it pruned at least of many highly exceptionable parts which nevertheless were all repeated. Indeed, it is difficult to discern any appearance of what we hope must yet be deemed an adaptation to the American stage. A scantling of the French Revolution is, indeed, introduced, in that scene where a rabble of sovereign citizens is assembled, for the purpose of murdering the Governor, and a little Child, and where their orators harangue them from the head of an hogshead. If it is meant that this part of the business should be considered as adapted to the American stage and of course held up for an example, then, I think they had better given us the play as it came from the hands of Kotzebue, without insulting us with this adaptation. The piece is crouded with invective against Priests, with the crimes of nobility, and common place declamation against War; and is as highly fraught with the tenets of the School of Weishaupt as any production that has heretofore invaded us from this vile source.

TALEYRAND.

Citizen Talleyrand has lately displayed at Paris, trait of duplicity and finesse. On the 23d, there appeared in a journal, under the immediate direction of Talleyrand, the following paragraph and letter:

"Citizen Talleyrand, sincerely afflicted at finding the name of citizen Jorry included in the list of those who were affected by the decree of the 26th Brumaire, has just written to the minister of the police a letter which breathes the purest and most delicate sentiment."

LETTER

Of Citizen Talleyrand, to the Minister of the Police.

"I have read, Citizen Minister, with much anxiety, the name of Jorry in the list of those sentenced to banishment. Jorry is a very young man, whose errors are more entitled to indulgence, than deserving of rigourous treatment. He is now in the service of the republic in the army of Italy. Perhaps even at this moment, when the operation of the law extends to him, it is anticipated by the blow of the enemy. Perhaps his name is honoured by the wounds he may have received, or by a patriotic death.

"It is encumbent on me to add, that Jorry having, as far as I know, offended none but myself, I think I have peculiar right to offer these observations to your notice; and, I confess, that feeling the utmost desire to have the offence forgotten by all the world, as it is by me, I shall receive as a personal favour the exception which I now solicit, and which I entreat you to request of the Consuls of the republic.

This letter, which bears every mark of candour, was written when Talleyrand was acquainted with the death of of Jorry!!!

NEW-YORK, February 19.

Capt. Fitch of the brig Two Sisters, from Savannah, came up to town last evening in a pilot boat. He informs that the ship Shepherdess, Rogers, from that port is below; also the brig Appollo, Burnham, and brig Eliza, Swain, from Savannah, are below, within the Hook, and the brig John, Henderson, from Cork, in 60 days.

Savannah, Feb. 4.

Extract of a letter from col. Hawkins, agent of the United States for Indian Affairs, to Governor Jackson, dated Cowetah Tallowhassee, 20th Dec. 1799.

"I have not till the present had an opportunity to acknowledge the receipt of your excellency's favor of the 13th November, which was delivered me on the road to Tuckabatchee, and I cannot reply to the whole as I could. The documents herewith inclosed will exhibit to you some interesting proceedings in this quarter, and are an apology for the omission.

The National Council was convened at Tuckabatchee on the 24 Nov. the meeting has been a very interesting one: I had much conversation with the chiefs, and felt that as an agent, I possessed their confidence in a high degree. The Chiefs have agreed that all mischief makers and thieves of any country of white people, shall be under the government of the agent for Indian affairs.

Mr. Bowles is near the mouth of this river, from whence he continues to pour forth his threat against the officers of the United States in this department, and I continue my arrangements to punish all thieves and mischief makers. We have punished in an exemplary manner the leader of the banditti, who insulted the commissioners of Spain and the United States, on the 17th of Sept.—he was cropped, whipped, and his property destroyed, and three of his associates whipped. We have had one white man whipped for negro stealing, and one negro shot thro' the arm and in the thigh, for resisting those who were sent to apprehend him, and attempting to fire on a white man.

I have sent down one negro belonging to Mr. Winn, and have in my possession one belonging to Mrs. M'Intosh, one to Capt. Marcus, and one to Charles Ingram; this fellow is the one who is wounded. These negroes will be delivered to the order of their owners, or be sent down by the first conveyance.

I find it an arduous undertaking with a few assistants to make the impressions I wish on the minds of my red charge, who are scattered over a wild country of at least 300 miles square. Bowles and other mischief makers, are by every opportunity poisoning the minds of the Indians with their abominable lies and misrepresentations. In the present conjuncture I receive and reciprocate with peculiar pleasure, the assurance of future co-operation on the part of your excellency, to promote harmony and to preserve peace. The period may be eventually a very interesting one for your frontiers."

BALTIMORE, February 18.

FIRE

Was yesterday morning, about sun-rise, discovered bursting from the cabin of the ship Mohawk, of Philadelphia, lying at Baker's wharf, Fell's Point. The fire originated from the stove, which being placed in the ceiling, it is supposed a spark communicated to the wainscot pannels. Happily it gained no considerable height before it was discoered and extinguished, had the fire but touched the rigging of the vessel, a dreadful conflagration must have been the consequence, for the Mohawk is surrounded by a great number of vessels, all of which are ice-bound.

TO THE

People of Northampton County.

Friends and Fellow Citizens,

AFTER having ſerved you nearly 23 years in the offices of Regiſter for the Probate of Wills, and Recorder of Deeds, as alſo a great part of that time as Clerk of the Orphan's Court; I am now diſmiſſed from thoſe appointments, by the Governor you have lately elected, for reaſons beſt known to himſelf.—If for any partiality or miſconduct in office, the fact muſt be known to you, and upon that ground he has acted perfectly right and juſtifiably: If upon any other ground, it becomes you to judge whether he acted like the father of a free people towards me, and whether he is realy that great, good, and juſt man, that his advocates held him up to you to be, previous to the laſt election.

I hope you will pardon the intruſion of this addreſs, when I remind you of the whole tenor of my public life, of which the ſenior part of you have been witneſſes, and a number of you my companions in toil and danger. Early in the conteſt between this country and Great Britain, I took an active and decided part, with thoſe who ſtood up to defend the rights and liberties of our country. For a ſhort time I entered into the military ſervice, and on the 27th day of Auguſt 1776, in that memorable battle on Long-Iſland, was by a cannon ball wounded in my left arm, which wound ſo diſabled me, that I could not obtain a livelihood by a laborious life, to which from my infancy I had been brought up: Thus ſituated, my proſpects in life were gloomy, and the fate of our country undecided; at the ſame time hoping, that under the protection of Divine Providence, we ſhould in the end prevail, and eſtabliſh the Freedom and Independence of America, and I ſhould never ſuffer want, from a generous people and government.

The firſt dawn of fair proſpects for me ſeemed to juſtify that opinion, when in March 1777, the Legiſlature of this ſtate appointed me to the offices I lately held; by accepting thereof, out of gratitude I ſuſpended my juſt claim to ſolicit a penſion on account of my diſability. You ought to remember, that in thoſe times which "tried mens" ſouls" very many of thoſe who are now ſo avaricious for offices, were either children, or did not then deem it prudent to ſtep forward and accept of any appointment, leſt their lives and fortunes ſhould be forfeited, if (according to their toryfied expectations) the Britiſh ſhould prevail in the conteſt; and that during the war, whilſt paper money was in circulation, and all office fees payable in that depreciated currency, my emoluments in office amounted to very little more than the expence of books and paper. During all thoſe times of "toil and danger," I cannot doubt that I poſſeſſed your confidence in a very flattering degree—You did not then believe me to be one of the "Traitors, Refugees, Tories, French Ariſtocrats, Britiſh Agents, or Apoſtate Whigs"; for if you did believe ſo, why did you elect me firſt into the Council of Cenſors; next into the Convention to conſider and ratify the Federal Conſtitution; again to be one of your Electors for a Preſident and Vice Preſident of the United States; and laſtly, into the Convention when the preſent Conſtitution of our ſtate was framed and adopted. Thus honoured with your fulleſt confidence, I had opportunities of hearing the opinions of your beſt and wiſeſt patriots on the nature of government, which enabled me to form my own concluſions, on the tendency and expediency of public meaſures, adopted and purſued by our government, without having recourſe to ignorant and deſigning demagogues, who inſtead of informing, only attempt to miſlead the honeſt and uninformed part of the citizens—Thus have I been firm and uniform in thoſe political opinions, and in the purſuit of ſuch meaſures, which in conſcience I believed would beſt promote and ſecure the peace, liberty and independence of that counntry in whoſe cauſe I had bled.

This line of conduct, when the ſpirit of revolution, as well in religion as in government, began to pervade various parts of the earth, ſoon made me the object of hatred to thoſe who were hoſtile to the peace and proſperity of their country, and the government of their own choice. It is known to you, that of late a great part of the office hunters who courted your favours and popularity, directed moſt of their darts of venom and malice againſt my character and reputation, with the intention of making me appear odious to you.

Thus ſituated, previous to the laſt election, the preſent Governor, and Mr. James Roſs, were put in nomination for the high and important office of Chief Magiſtrate of the Commonwealth, with both of whom I had acquired a perſonal acquaintance, in thoſe public bodies to which you had elected men, and learnt to know their reſpective worth and abilities—Under theſe circumſtances I did not heſitate to exerciſe that freedom of choice, which ought ever to be dear to a Freeman, who loves and ſupports liberty, and declared myſelf to be in favor of the election of Mr. James Roſs, as the moſt worthy candidate of the two.—In this opinion, for want of better information, a large majority of you differed from me, and preferred the other as the moſt worthy, who eventually was ſucceſsful in his election. As ſoon as this event was known, conſcious of having done no wrong in exerciſing my own opinion, I cheerfully ſubmitted to the choice of the majority—and underſtanding that my offices were in jeopardy, I thought proper to wait on the Governor elect, to learn my fate, and ſolicit a continuance of my appointments. When I came to the city, to avoid abruptneſs, I requeſted a worthy and reſpectable friend to accompany me to Mr. M'Kean's houſe, to ſtep in firſt, to announce my being in waiting, and requeſt permiſſion to ſee him. My friend cheerfully complied with my requeſt; but imagine how I was amazed with the treatment of the man, who was held up to you as the Palladium of Liberty, the Patron of Equality, the plain Republican, easy of access, when he behaved like a man void of feeling, or common civility, by denying me admiſſion to his preſence. From that time I conſidered myſelf to be marked out as a victim of his power and party vengeance, and confidently aſſert for no other reaſon, than that of not voting for his honor.—If any other reaſon exiſts, I challenge not only his excellency the governor, but the worſt of my foes to the proof of it.

Now my fellow citizens, make a contraſt between the conduct of our late Governor Mifflin, and that of your late choice.—Was there not alſo an oppoſition to the election of the former; do you remember an inſtance of his official vengeance againſt his opponents?—No! he indulged no ſuch paltry paſſions, he acted like a kind father to all, and not like the enraged leader of a party.

Now look to the conduct of Mr. M'Kean—His firſt public declaration that we have heard was his anſwer to an addreſs preſented to him on his election. Therein, among many ungenerous, falſe, and unmanly epithets, he calls his opponents "traitors, tories, refugees." &c. &c. If he knew of any that were really ſuch, was it not his ſworn duty as Chief Juſtice to bring them to trial and puniſhment?—No, he reſerves his vengeance againſt them for the Governor, from whom there is no appeal, and to this vindictive, malicious ſpirit I have had the HONOR of being marked out as one of the firſt victims, for whom there was no ſalvation in my paſt ſervices, in my official integrity, in my age, or numerous family.

Thus we ſee a ſyſtem introduced, which in my humble opinion gives a mortal wound to that liberty which is ſo dear to us all, I mean the freedom of election. For if the Governor is right, all monorities however reſpectable for number or character, muſt be wrong and puniſhable. Will any of you dare to oppoſe his will and pleaſure, at any election, during his adminiſtration? If you do, remember my fate, which, let me repeat, neither old wounds, ſervices, age, nor a large family could avert. Nothing would do—I had committed an unpardonable crime, becauſe as a freeman I had given my vote to him whom I believed the moſt worthy. O Liberty! what a panthom thou art in the hands of ſuch men.

To bring the matter nearer home: Suppoſe there are two or more candidate for the office of ſheriff amongſt us, who ſtand nearly equal in public eſteem, the ſucceſs of either may appear dubious before the election, what would you think of him who gets the office, if he would like our republican governor call the minority "traitors, refugees, tories, French ariſtocrats, Britiſh agents, or apoſtate whigs," and exert all his official authority for their deſtruction? What would you think of ſuch a caſe? Would you not look upon him as a moſt cruel tyrant, and form the moſt ſolemn reſolution never to vote for him again?

An inevitable conſequence follows this ſyſtem of extermination: every man holding an office in the ſtate dependant on the will of the executive (of whom there are a great many, and who generally are, or ought to be men of good information and character) is at once cut off, not only from diſperſing his influence and diffuſing his information, for the benefit and light of his fellow citizens, but even from his own vote. The event of an election is always uncertain, and he will hazard his bread by any interference. Thus to hold a commiſſion in Pennſylvania, ſo far from being a mark of honor and confidence, is a badge of the moſt baſe and ſervile ſlavery, depriving the poſſeſſor of his moſt invaluable rights, and ſinking him to a humble vaſſal, afraid to act, afraid to ſpeak, afraid to think, leſt ſome watchful enemy catch his words or his thoughts, and ſend them to the ſucceſsful governor in the forms of affidavits and certificates. That your preſent governor has been fond of information in this way, and on the authority of ſuch intereſted and partial teſtimony, has been taking and giving away your offices of truſt, is known to all of you.

Now my friends, fellow citizens and countrymen, I bid you an official and affectionate adieu. If during any part of my official conduct I have unknowingly and unintentionally given any of you juſt cauſe of offence, I then aſk your pardon. If any man entertains a ſuſpicion that I have extorted unlawful fees from him, I pray him to call on me, and convince me of the fact, and I will do him juſtice. Ye widows and orphans for whom I have done official buſineſs do me the kindneſs to remember, that I never turned any of you off for want of money, gave leſs attention to your buſineſs, or leſs ſatisfaction to your enquiries. Remember that poverty received the ſame attention from me as opulence. Your ſatisfaction always appeared a moſt valuable compenſation to me. Such ſervices I cannot for the future render you. It is moſt probable I leave public life forever, but let me earneſtly beg that regard from you all, as a private citizen, which I am proud to ſay, I always enjoyed as a public officer.

My German brethren,

Let me particularly addreſs myſelf to you on this occaſion, a ſerious and diſtreſſing one to me. United to you by the ties of our common anceſtor—by the remembrance of their common country—by the force of a common language, I fondly look for a peculiar ſympathy from you in my ſufferings. I have not deprived myſelf, I have never wiſhed to deprive myſelf of my affectionate prejudice for my German brethren; I look for the ſame regard from them, and I truſt they never intended or wiſhed, that the man who obtained ſo many ſuffrages from them ſhould make a victim of your old friend, and always deligent ſervant.

JOHN ARNDT, late Regiſter, Recorder, and Clerk of the Orphan's Court, for Northampton County.

Eaſton, February 6, 1800.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, February 19.

Mr. Varnum preſented a petition of Thomas Frothingham, of Charleſtown, Maſſ. praying compenſation for property deſtroyed during the Revolutionary War.

Referred to the Committee of Claims.

On motion of Mr. Gallatin, the petitions of a number of the inhabitants of the four Weſtern Counties of Pennſylvania, heretofore preſented, and the report of the Secretary of War, and Committee of Claims thereon made the ſecond ſeſſion of the fifth Congreſs—were referred to the Committee of Claims.

Mr. D. Foſter, from the Committee of Claims, to whom were referred the petition of Moſes Gill, Eſq. who prayed for the payment of 8,400 dollars of loan office certificates, and intereſt thereon, iſſued by the ſtate of Georgia, which had been rejected at the Treaſury as not conſtituting a claim againſt the United States—A report from the Secretary of the Treaſury on the ſubject, is ſubmitted to the conſideration of the Houſe, with which the committee expreſs an opinion, it would be proper for the Houſe to concur and that it would not be expedient for the United States to aſſume the payment of ſaid Certificates.

The report of the Committee, and of the Secretary of the Treaſury were committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe for Monday next.

The third reading of the Bankrupt Bill was further poſtponed till to-morrow—and

The Houſe took into conſideration the report of the Committee of the whole on the Bill further to ſuſpend the Commercial Intercourſe between the U. States and France and the dependencies thereof.

The following ſection was reported to be ſtruck out by the Committee, viz.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the whole of the iſland of Hiſpaniola, ſhall, for the purpoſes of this act, be conſidered as a dependency of the French Republic. Provided, that nothing herein contained ſhall be deemed to repeal or annul in any part, the order or proclamation of the Preſident of the United States, heretofore iſſued for permitting Commercial Intercourſe with certain ports of that iſland."

This ſection was oppoſed yeſterday by Meſſrs. Nicholas, Livingſton, and Harper on the ground that we had no right to determine, to whom the juriſdiction belonged—that altho it had been ceded by Spain to France, yet the latter had never taken poſſeſſion—and it might poſſibly be, by ſome ſecret article, re-conveyed to Spain; and therefore France would never have poſſeſſion of the whole of this Iſland—Mr. Harper alſo objected to it, becauſe it went to eſtabliſh a new principle, to wit, the reſtriction of intercourſe with Spain—and that it might give offence to that nation.

It was anſwered by Meſſrs. Smith and Sewall, that no poſſible offence could be taken at the expreſſions uſed in the ſection, ſince they were only intended to operate as to the proviſions of this act—That Spain often prohibited our intercourſe with the Colonies, without a ſuppoſition of giving offence to us, and we of courſe had an equal right of prohibiting our citizens from going to theſe Colonies, whenever it was good policy to do ſo—that although Spain had not actually given up the Government of Hiſpaniola to France, yet their influence there was very great, and they had equally as much command as though no Spaniſh Government exiſted—and that it might be in the power of France to take poſſeſſion of the whole of the iſland at any time, which, for political purpoſes, they probably now declined to do.

Upon the queſtion for concuring with the committee in ſtriking out the ſection, there were ayes 42, noes 48—and the ſection, conſequently, retained.

The queſtion upon the ſalary to be allowed the conſul or public agent of the United States, reſiding in any ſuch port, who is reſtricted from trade, was then taken, and 3000 dollars agreed to, 50 members riſing in favor of it.

Mr. Harper moved to amend the firſt part of the following ſection, by ſtriking out the words in italic. viz.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That "excepting for foreign ſhips or veſſels, owned, hired, and employed by perſons permanently reſiding in [foreign countries, and without the limits of the United States,] and commanded and wholly navigated by foreigners," no clearance for a foreign voyage ſhall be granted, unleſs bonds be given ſhe ſhall not proceed to a French port, &c.

Meſſrs. Harper, Waln, J. Brown, and Champlin, ſpoke in favour of the motion; and meſſrs. Smith, Eggleſton, Varnum, Randolph, H. Lee and Gallatin, againſt it—when the queſtion was taken by Yeas and Nays, as follows:

YEAS.

Meſſ. Bartlett, Brace, J. Brown, Champlin, Cooper, Craik, Dana, J. Davenport, F. Davenport, Edmond, Evans, A. Foſter, D. Foſter, Freeman, Glen, C. Goodrich, E. Trigg, Van Cortlandt, Varnum, R. Williams.—56.

Mr. Waln then moved to amend the ſection by ſtriking out the words within crotchets and inſerting "Europe," in order to prevent fraud by our citizens being made burghers of St. Thomas in the Weſt-Indies, and being thereby enabled to tranſfer their right of property as well as citizenſhip, to carry on a direct intercourſe with the French iſlands.

Mr. Gallatin oppoſed this amendment, and contended it would not anſwer the purpoſes intended.

Yeas 56—Nays 46.

The bill was then ordered to be engroſſed and read a third time to-morrow—58 members voting in favour of it.

Mr. Harriſon from the committee appointed to enquire whether any, and if any, what alterations are neceſſary to be made in the law authoriſing the ſale of lands N. W. of the river Ohio, made a report, recommending the adoption of a reſolution for leaſing all the ſalt ſprings and licks, the property of the United States, in that territory, which ſprings are now worked to advantage by ſundry adventurers.

The report was committed to a committee of the whole Houſe and made the order of the day for Thurſday.— djourned.

Captain Sarenſon gives the following liſt of Baltimore veſſels arrived at Port Republican

Brig Betſey, Chatfield, maſter,

Brig Mary, Hall,

Sailed in company with the Scorpion for Baltimore,

Brig Charlotte, of Baltimore,
Milford, of do. captain Waters.

The brig Betſey, Capt. Blackwell, was boarded off Cape Maize, by the United States frigate Conſtitution, Capt. Talbot. The Conſtitution was cruiſing for a French ſhip of war expected from the windward bound to Havanna.

October 25, on our paſſage to Liverpool, fell in with a Britiſh man of war, of 74 guns with a fleet under her convoy, conſiſting of 30 ſail; we went under the lee of the man of war and hailed him; ſaw the Engliſh and French coaſts the next day, about ſeven o'clock, P. M. and a number of veſſels in ſight.

Janunry 30, about 7 o'clock, P. M. ſaw an Engliſh ſloop of war of 19 eighteen pounders; at 7 A. M. he came up with us and fired two guns at us, which we returned with our ſtern chaſers, and then we hailed him, aſked where bound, anſwered to Jamaica; but he was bound to Newfoundland; he came on board of us with his boat, looked at our papers, and let us proceed.

January 28, at 2 A. M. ſaw a ſail about one quarter of a mile diſtant; which kept on her courſe till ſhe got right aſtern of us, then tacked about and gave chaſe to us, and came up with us; but ſqualls commencing at the time, ſhe was obliged to heave to aſtern, and when ſhe was coming the third time, we hoiſted our colours and gave her a ſhot, then ſhe came a little cloſer, hoiſted French colors and gave us a ſhot; and at ten minutes paſt 4 A. M. commenced a hot action on both ſides till half paſt 5, A. M. when ſhe bore away from along ſide of us, but chaſed us till dark, and then altered her courſe; ſhe had upwards of 60 or 70 men, on board, had three guns, and a great number of ſmall arms; we only had one man wounded, tnough the ſhot flew like hail about our ears, and every broadſide we gave her, we could perceive did great execution; we ſaw ſhe would not venture again and we made ſail.

Left Liverpool the 7th of December in company with the ſhip Fabius, of Norfolk, captain Black; when we made Fayal, (one of the Weſtern Iſlands) we left him. In lat 24, 00, long 66, 00, fell in with a French privateer, who engaged us an hour and 25 minutes, within piſtol ſhot the whole time, and ſometimes cloſer; I ſuppoſed her to be juſt come out, as ſhe was quite clean and had not leſs than 60 men on board; ſhe kept a conſtant firing on us with ſmall arms under our quarter, ſo that we could only get our ſtern chaſers to bear on her, until ſhe came up with an intention to board us; but he met with too warm a reception, and thought proper to ſheer off with the loſs of about 20 or 30 of his men, and her fore gaft and rigging about their ears; I am happy to ſay that our officers and men behaved like brave Americans during the whole action, and I have only to lament the loſs of one man who died of his wounds next day.

GENERAL WASHINGTON.

By RICHARD ALSOP.

AMONG the excellent Eulogies on the character of this illuſtrious man, we preſume it will be highly gratifying to the people of the United States to learn, that the taſk has been undertaken in verſe, by a Poet of ſuch diſtinguiſhed genius as Mr. Alſop.

Why on this day, when erſt in ſmiles array'd,
Each chearful mien the ſigns of joy diſplay'd,
Why ſounds yon paſſing knell in accents ſlow,
And ſtrings each heart in uniſon of woe,
Why drops yon veteran ſoldier's hoary head,
His honeſt pride, his wonted ardour fled?
Theſe marks of woe no private loſs the cauſe,
No private grief the tear from millions draws;
But all a guardian friend, and ſire deplore—

Just received and for Sale,
By WM. Y. BIRCH, Stationer, No. 17, South Second Street,
DR. HAMILTON'S
Genuine Essence and Extract of MUSTARD.

A SAFE AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY
For acute and chronic rheumatism, gout palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains sprains, bruises, pains in the face and neck, &c. &c.

The experience of many ages and the testimony of the ablest medical practitioners, from an early period to the present time, agree in ascribing to mustard, every powerful and singular virtue—in every case where the necessity of stimulating remedies are indicated, while the inflammatory state of the system forbids the use of medicines of a heating quality, mustard is eminently useful, and vastly superior to any other drug

The essence and extract of mustard contain the whole virtues of the plant concentrated in a small compass, entirely divested of that acrimony which renders its external application so inconvenient in a crude state, likewise rejecting those inert and useless parts which compose the chief of its bulk, and render the necessary dose so large as to be extremely nauseating to the stomach, by which means every inconvenience is obviated in these medicines.

This valuable remedy is prepared both in a fluid state and in pills, and thus excellently adapted for external and internal use.

The pills operate mildly by urine and by insensible perspiration, expelling the superfluous and morbid humours; they are highly cordial to the stomach, create appetite, assist digestion, removing flying pains, and cold or windy complaints in the stomach and bowels.

The essence is a wonderful assistant to the pills in rheumatism, gout, lumbago and palsy, and by its peculiar penetrating and dispensing quality, removes the most violent sprains, bruises, numbness, stiffness of the neck, joints, &c swelled faces, head ache, indurated breasts, white swellings, frozen limbs, &c. and will infallibly prevent the ill effects of getting wet or damp in the feet.

Many persons have been much disappointed by purchasing medicines under the name of Essence of Mustard, which have no analogy whatever to this remedy; some of these preparations are perfectly inert, others produce the most violent and dangerous effects, and are much to be guarded against.

CASES OF CURES,
Selected from a numerous list.

From Capt. Dowers, Arch-street, Philadel.

DEAR SIR,

As you think it will be useful, you are at liberty to publish my testimony in favor of Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

I have been about four years much afflicted with the rheumatism in my shoulders, and sometimes so violently affected as to prevent me from moving my arms, and I was never free from severe pain in some part or other.—I have been at much expence, and tried a good deal of medicine to no purpose; I purchased a bottle of drops, advertised under a title similar to your medicine, but experienced the most excrutiating smart from its application, which obliged me to desist.—At length I was advised by Dr. Biggs to try Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard, from which I found immediate relief, and by the use of three boxes and two bottles, I have recovered a state of perfect health and strength—I shall take a good supply to sea, and never be without so valuable a medicine in my possession.

I am, &c.
I. R. DAWES.

Mr. Henry Reese, Butcher, proprietor of No. 24. Centre Market-House, Baltimore.

SIR,

About two months ago, your valuable medicine proved of singular service to me, I was not able to move from my room for upwards of a fortnight, with a rhematism or rheumatic gout, in my left foot and ancle; when Dr. Buchanan recommended the Essence of Mustard, as the only medicsne to be depended on, and directed me where to procure it, and by using less than a quarter of a bottle and a few of the Pills, I was able to ride to market next day, and have been perfectly free from my complaint ever since.

HENRY REESE.

January 4, 1800.

Mrs. Mary M'Crea, wife of Mr. George M'Crea, grocer, Bond-street, Fell's Point, was perfectly cured (by persevering in the use of Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard) of a rheumatic complaint of eleven years standing. The greatest part of last winter she was unable to dress or undress without assistance, she had the best medical advice both in Europe and America without effect.

From Mr. Charles Willett, Plaisterer, Platt street, Baltimore.

SIR,

I send you the particulars of my cure by Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard, that you may make it known for the benefit of others. About two months ago I strained my right knee so violently by a fall that I was unable to walk without a crutch. I tried British oil, Opodeldoc and other medicines, but grew considerably worse, and the part became inflamed and swelled to a considerable degree, when I was recommended to the Essence of Mustard, and by using two bottles I was able to walk in less than a week, and am now as hearty as ever.

HAMILTON'S
GRAND RESTORATIVE,

WHICH the inventor confidently recommends as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief, and permanent cure of various complaints which result from dissipated pleasures—juvenile indiscretions—residence in climates unfavorable to the constitution—the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other destructive intemperance—the unskilful or excessive use of Mercury—the disease peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.

And is proved by long experience to be unparalleled

In the cure of nervous disorders, consumptions, lowness of spirits, loss of appetite, impurity of the blood, hysterical affections, inward weaknesses, violent cramps in the stomach and back, indigestion, melancholy, gout in the stomach, pains in the limbs, relaxations, involuntary emissions, seminal weaknesses, obstinate gleets, fluor albus, (or whites) impotency, barrenness, &c. &c.

This medicine is perfectly different in its qualities and operation from those hot and irritating drugs so frequently proposed for similar purposes, and which only recommend themselves by the dangerous rapidity of their effects, and which acting as a temporary but violent stimulus on the nervous system, infallibly produce greater evils than those they are intended to remove

The principal operation of this remedy is in the stomach, restoring the digestive powers, and sending from that organ new health and vigor into every part of the system; it enriches and purifies the blood without enflaming it, braces without stimulating too violently the nervous system; strengthens the secretory vessels and general habit; brings back the muscular fibres to their natural and healthy tone, and restores that nutrition which immoderate evacuations have destroyed, and whose loss had thrown the whole frame into langour and debility.

The restorative is absolutely above all recommendation in removing those weaknesses and infirmities with which many females are inflicted, the consequences of difficult and painful labors, or of injudicious treatment therein.

The most obstinate seminal gleets, and the most distressing cases of fluor albus in females, fall particularly under the province of this restorative, speedily yield to its benign operation, and are radically cured, by correcting and purifying the acrimonious humours, restoring a proper degree of tension to the relaxed fibres, strengthening the weakened organs.

In cases of extremity where the long prevalence and obstinacy of disease has brought on a general impoverishment of the system, excessive debility of the whole frame, and a wasting of the flesh, which no nourishment or cordial could repair—a perseverance in the use of this medicine has performed the most astonishing cures.

The grand restorative is prepared in pills as well as in a fluid form, which assists considerably in prodcing a gradual and lasting effect.—Their virtues remain unimpaired for years in any climate.

Persons wishing to procure any of the above medicines genuine, must apply ONLY as above—and likewise observe that the signature of LEE & Co. (the general agents for the United States) is pasted on the outside of each, without which they cannot be genuine.

At the above place may likewise be had Hamilton's justly celebrated Worm Lozenges, the infallible Itch Ointment, Dr. Leroux's Indian Vegetable Specific for Venereal Complaints, Ague and Fever Drops, which have never failed effecting a cure, Hahn's Anti bilious Pills, Ditto Corn Plaister, the Persian Lotion for the face and skin, Gowland's Lotion, Church's Cough Drops, Anderson's Pills.

The Cordial Restorative Balsam

Is recommended as a Medicine of specific and unparalleled virtues for the immediate relief and speedy and permanent cure of the above disorders, having stood a trial of many successful years, during which period many thousands of both sexes have been restored from the brink of the grave.

This Balsam is particularly adapted to weak female constitutions, as well as to phlegmatic habits in general; it acts powerfully as a nervine, not only to the weak stomach, but to the whole nervous system! corrects a vitiated appetite and digestion in the first passages, and assists wonderfully in recovering the tone of the urinary and genital organs:—Hence its efficacy in the most obstinate seminal gleets in men, and corresponding weaknesses in women; and hence it will contribute more safely, surely and honourably towards conjugal happiness, than any of those irritating, diabolical compositions, which are so shamefully administered to the unwary.

It is earnestly recommended to those ladies, who from repeated and difficult labours are afflicted with weaknesses and infirmities; in which cases it is highly useful, strengthening at the same time the stomach, the back, the weakened organs, and the whole constitution.

Those, who in advanced life, feel the consequences of youthful excess, or unfortunate youth, who have brought on themselves a numerous train of evils, will by the use of this find themselves restored to health and strength, and all the melancholy symptoms removed, which are the general effects of such causes.

For whether the system has received a shock, and is debilitated from imprudence or inattention in the earliest part of life, or is sinking under the advance of years, a few doses of this medicine will afford immediate assurance of returning health and strength, by giving tone to the muscular system, and organs of digestion, and by renovating the whole constitution.

To the young it will afford lasting health, strength and spirits, in place of lassitude and debility: and to the aged and infirm, it will assuredly furnish great relief and comfort, by gently and safely invigorating the system; but if it be in the power of medicine to gild the autumn of declining years, and calmly and serenely protract the close of life beyond its narrow span, this Restorative is capable of effecting that grand desideratum.

Constitutions relaxed, weak or decayed, in men or women, are under the immediate influence of this Restorative.

Old coughs soon relieved and speedily cured.

Poverty of blood and emaciated limbs, will ere long meet the happiest change; the chill watery fluid become rich and balsamic, and the limbs be covered with flesh, firm and healthful.

It will no doubt be acceptable to the reader, to see accounts of some of the remarkable cases and cures which have been performed by this truly invaluable medicine, in the disorders for which it was invented; he has therefore selected a few of such cases as have come within his own immediate knowledge, which are published and may be had (gratis) at any of the places where the medicine is sold
